

Dear Kenny,

I'm going on a local tour with my family next Sunday. I'm very excited.

We are going to meet at Tai O. We are going to watch Chinese white dolphins and take photos at a quarter past ten. At twelve o'clock, we will have lunch in a famous restaurant. Then, we are going to go cycling and go swimming at half past two. We are going to leave at half past four.

I think I am going to take a lot of pictures at that day. Maybe because the Chinese white dolphins are too cute and beautiful. I was surprised by dad because he said that we are going to go on a "big" trip. Since I haven't been to a trip, I am super delighted and excited.

The tour sounds fun. I can't wait for it!

Thomas
